Subject: RE: pSWLP - Reconvened Farm Systems Conferencing

Dear Karina

Would you please bring the note below to the attention of Commissioner Leinjen? Thanks and regards

Dear Commissioner

I act for Beef+Lamb NZ Ltd, an appellant on the stock exclusion provisions (policy 18 and rule 70). It is not a s 274 party to any other appeals.

This email addresses the attendance of the B+LNZ experts Drs Stevens and Corner-Thomas and Mr Orchiston at Monday's reconvened farm systems conferencing, along with Ms Foster's observation of the same.

Firstly, counsel apologises for the informality of this communication. However it relates to the email from this afternoon from Mr McCallum-Clark on farm systems expert conferencing; other commitments have meant a memorandum is unable to be prepared.

B+LNZ's experts were only briefed to address the provisions B+LNZ appealed, as reflected in their will say statements. They have not considered the wider plan provisions, except as relate directly to the matters appealed.

Counsel is advised the reconvened conferencing topics are:

1. Clarification of the answers to questions, 1, 3, 4 and 7. The only questions B+LNZ had an interest in were questions 15 and 16.
2. The participants in the Science conferencing have referred questions to the farm system experts, none of which directly relate to stock exclusion provisions appealed by B+LNZ.

Accordingly, given the matters to be considered at the reconvened farm systems conferencing do not relate to matters B+LNZ has an interest in, B+LNZ respectfully seeks that its experts be excused from attending further conferencing.
