Social Procurement is an important agenda that has been introduced by the government in 2020 and is an opportunity for all of us as to support our district and future wellbeing of our businesses, people and country New Zealand.

As a small company we are limited as we are not resourced to deal with business development such as larger businesses are, but we pride ourselves in supporting local industries like Waikaka Gold who reinforce and enhance our visibility and reputation in utilising people and other businesses to support of our local economy in such areas as accommodation, earthworks, service location, equipment hire, material purchases and local labour services.

We believe that the Waikaka gold project will provide employment and contribute significantly to the local economy as it has over the years to date.
