Subject: pSWLP Southland tranche 1

Good morning

Judge Borthwick advises:

Re-reading the Minute 'Supplementary Evidence' dated 16 June 2022, I realise that I have not been clear in setting out my expectations at paragraph [1]. To clarify, it is the court's expectation that the Regional Council's witnesses Dr Monaghan and Mr McCallum-Clark will respond to the Minute and file supplementary evidence.

However, if the parties wish their planners or farm systems experts to comment, I will direct all witnesses to conference on the questions posed by the court. It is my expectation that any joint witness statement produced by the experts become evidence without the need for supplementary evidence to be filed. In this case it is important that the experts give reasons in the joint witness statement for their agreement or disagreements on any matter.

*J E Borthwick
Environment Judge
17 June 2022*

Kind regards
Maddy
